

I would like to see the FCC crack down on these cell phone companies. Just like any industry, they resist any move that does not offer them profit even if it is widely popular with consumers. Please force them to quickly allow users to have cell phone number portability.
thanks.